“Lay Leadership Training II” with Michael Carey

Michael T. Carey became pastor at Trinity Presbyterian Church, Satellite Beach, Florida in 1995. In 1998 Michael and the leaders of Trinity began to utilize the insights of Rick Warren’s “purpose-driven church,” which has resulted in an increase in the quality and the scope of the church’s ministry. Since that time, worship attendance has grown from 400 to over 600. Over 400 persons are active in a small group or class, and half of the church’s members have made a commitment to significant ministry.

As an advocate for purpose-driven ministry, Michael wrote “Mainstreaming the Purpose-Driven Church” in the May 2001 edition of Net Results. He has led workshops at the annual Purpose-Driven Church Conference and taught a continuing education course at Columbia Theological Seminary: “Purpose-Driven Ministry in Presbyterian Churches.” In April of 2003 he organized the “Presbyterians Seeking Purpose-Driven Ministry Conference,” held at Trinity Church on an annual basis and was featured in PRESBYTERIANS TODAY, January, 2008.
